

Login User

Login User

When creating or editing automations, you can make use of the parameter below.

```
{siteusername}
```

This will return the username of the current login account that activates this trigger.